Uncle Enoch Whitaker, a valuable lower Linefork citizen, was in town Tuesday. He says Uncle Alex Stamper, now up in eighty, is quite feeble.

All candidates for county offices, magistrates, constables or municipal offices must file their first expense accounts with the County Clerk and the Chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners not more than 15 and not less than 10 days before the primary. The last expense account must be filed with the same officers within 30 days after the primary. Without doing this successful candidates cannot receive certificates of nomination.

They fought just ten minutes. $1,500,000 was at stake. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars per minute is a pretty good price. We are speaking of the Dempsey-Carpentier bulldog battle fought last Saturday.

Idle? Big business is ready for you. Sell 137 products direct to farmers on credit. If you own team or auto, are under 50, can give bond, we start you. Twenty million use our products. Good territory open. Write J. R. Watkins Co. Dept 114, Winona, Minn. Its your life chance.

Drinking water is said to be very scarce in Hazard. Much sickness is reported in the town.

Johnny Holcomb, one of the leading up the river candidates, was down this week and says he is so far ahead of his opponents that he has not seen one of them for a week.

Before this issue reaches you we are looking for something political to drop. It just makes a difference which way the drop falls.

2 girls or women wanted, to work at Whitesburg Laundry.

Hon. Pete Wheeler, of Hazard, was up looking after some legal affairs.

A good rain which was badly needed fell Wednesday. We hope it was general all over the country as we hear farmers are needing rain.

Mrs. Tom Johnson of Cowan is reported quite ill.

Miss Sabina Caudill left for Sciotoville, Ohio, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. Jas. H. George for a month or so.

Geo. W. Gibson, running for Jailer in Knott county, was here for printing.

Alfonso Polchetti, of our town, bought marriage license to wed Anna Barba of Italy. The license will have to go to that faraway country and return with her here before the marriage can be solemnized.

S. Tilden Wright and C. C. Crawford have each filed for the Democratic nomination for County Judge. This makes the same number of candidates for this office as the Republicans have.

July 4th passed safe and very sane here. Those who wanted it had the "spirit" and those who didn't went away to get it.

Mr. Picklesimer says he is going to have a stump pulling on August 6 followed by a big jollification at the bull hole next day. He invites all to come and help pull.

Mr. Stump is here and tells us he is going to have a pickle eating on August 6 followed by a big jollification at the bull hole next day. All invited.

Sam Comadori, writing from Manbar, W. Va., says: "I send you herewith $1.50 for the Eagle. Am getting along fine with my work and am well. Best wishes to all friends."

Prof. Harries is conducting a teacher's training class at the Auditorium. It will last about five weeks. About 30 are in attendance.

Felix Fields returned from up East where he witnessed the big fistic combat between Dempsey and Carpentier.

Dentist Whitaker is again able to be in his office and will be glad for those in need of work to call.

The beautiful J. E. Shea residence near Main street will soon be completed.

The Bank of McRoberts, for years one of the leading State banking institutions in the coal fields above here, has been chartered by the U.S. Government to do a national banking business and is to be hereafter known as the First First National Bank of Fleming.

Prof. Kearney Adams, a graduate of Whitesburg High School and who has been taking special courses in school at Richmond, has returned. We understand he will have a position in the city graded and high school here this year.

The word "POSITIVE" heads a certain little article on this page of the Eagle. It means what it says and our friends for whom we have spent much money, worry and energy, if they are worthy the votes of our people should come in and settle their bills.

McRoberts, Fleming and Seco caught nearly everybody from Whitesburg on July 4th. The town was nearly deserted.

Craft & Son Realty Co., of Salem, Ind., are starting an advertising campaign in the Eagle. Craft & Son are none other than Lee Craft, who was born, reared and married in this county and a son of the late J. L. Craft. His young son, Frank, is connected with the firm and they are doing an extensive real estate business. Readers of the Eagle and others in need of a farm will do well to write Craft & Son Realty Co., Salem, Ind.

Four of Our Many Land Bargains

63 acres 4 1/2 miles of Salem, near Rush creek pike, lies abruptly rolling, limestone land, lots of timber for home use, fencing fair, abundance of water, good orchard, splendid house of six rooms, good barn and other outbuildings; price $2,750, $1,500 down, balance on terms.

48 acres 4 1/2 miles of Salem, on splendid pike, near the village of Canton, which has two churches, school, store, garage, etc. mostly level, lots of water enough timber, good bungalow house of 3 rooms, good barn, other outbuildings, ideal location and a genuine bargain at $4,800. $4,000 cash and balance to suit buyer.

160 acres 5 miles of Salem, 1 mile of Jackson Highway, 100 acres tillable, rest rolling and hilly, lots of timber for home use, fencing fair, good orchard, lots of water, splendid house of 7 rooms in firstclass repair, cellar, acetylene lights, barn 48x60 in good condition, all other useful outbuildings. This is an unusual offering at $9,500, one-half cash balance on easy payments. This farm will pay for itself in a few years.

240 acres 9 miles of Salem, on good pike 100 acres tillable rest rolling and hilly, 75 acres valuable timber, rest wood pasture, good house of 8 rooms, acetylene lights for house and barn, new barn with concrete silo, all other needed outbuildings, lots of water, all kinds of fruit, extra strong limestone land in high state of cultivation, fencing unusually good. This is an ideal stock farm and a big money maker for anyone who is able to manage it scientifically. The owner has made himself rich and wishes to retire. The farm itself is easily worth $15,000 but can be bought for $13,500, one-half cash and the remainder on easy payments.

These farms are located in a strong limestone belt and will produce alfalfa, bluegrass, from 50 to 80 bushels of corn per acre, 20 to 35 bushels of wheat per acre, 30 to 70 bushels of oats per acre, 2 to 4 tons of clover per acre and other crops in proportion. Good pikes run in every direction, the school system is best in the United States and churches of all denominations are convenient. There is not a negro resident in Washington county and foreigners do not seek employment here. This is as good land as can be bought in Kentucky for $300 per acre. A large number of Kentuckians have recently migrated to this section of the State of Indiana and others are coming rapidly. It is our intention to "Kentuckyize" Washington county.

The facilities of our office are entirely at the service of the public. We, therefore, earnestly invite you to write for one of our latest circulars, or, better, come and see that this county is all that we represent it to be.

Two Married

POLLY—GIBSON

On last Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson R. Gibson, John H. Polly, of near this place and Miss Hattie Gibson, were happily married. The groom is a former teacher, served throughout the late war in France and has since held a good position with the Consolidation Coal Company at McRoberts. The bride is a delightfully intelligent and handsome teacher for a few years and is highly educated.

DIXON—CAUDILL

Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Caudill, on Tolson, Mr. Arthur Dixon highly admired business young man and merchant at this place and Miss Arlie Caudill, a sweet young lady and lately a school girl here will be united in marriage. The happy pair will leave on a short honeymoon up north. We offer congratulations to each of the two pair.

Notice To Tax Payers

I or one of my deputies will call at every taxpayer's home between July 1 and October 1, 1921 and in order to save time and trouble for both the taxpayer and myself I respectfully ask that you make up a list of all taxable property as of July 1, 1921, and leave with some member of the family so your list may be obtained. Otherwise according to the law I would be forced to notice you to come to the county seat to list your property.

Please have your list ready.

Respectfully,
JOHN H. CRAFT,
Tax Commissioner Letcher Co.

Affidavit

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COUNTY OF LETCHER, S.S.

Personally appeared before me, Louis Cook, a candidate for Republican nomination for the office of Sheriff of Letcher county, Ky. to be voted for at the primary election on August 6th, 1921, and being first duly sworn by me, says:

That if nominated and elected as Sheriff of Letcher County he will not, during his term of office, drink any intoxicating liquors of any kind and that he will not appoint as deputy sheriff, a person unless such person shall, before assuming office as deputy sheriff, make an affidavit that during the time he is deputy sheriff he will not drink intoxicating liquors of any kind, whether on or off duty.

LOUIS COOK,
Subscribed and sworn to by Louis Cook before me this 4th day of July 1921.

Fields Makes Statement

Withdraws From Judicial Race. Resigns as Commonwealth's Attorney.

Whitesburg, Ky. July 7, 1921
To the people of Letcher and Pike Counties.

Having withdrawn from the race for Circuit Judge, I wish in this manner to thank all my friends for their interest manifested in the race up to the time of my withdrawal and for all support given me. It was against my judgment in the matter that I ever consented to enter the race in the beginning, but I finally consented to do so, feeling that the opposition to my nomination and election would not develop much strength. After getting into the race the opposition in some quarters developed stronger than I anticipated, and it became apparent to me that in order to wage a successful campaign it would be necessary to expend more money than I could well afford. The game of politics to me has been a losing one. I have held office for twelve years and am a poorer man today than when I began. With this in mind I could not bear the thought of going further into debt in order to meet the expenses of another vigorous campaign. Under these circumstances I hope my friends will not be disappointed at my withdrawal from the race.

Being anxious to be entirely free to resume my private practice of law at the earliest possible moment, I have also resigned my position as Commonwealth's Attorney. In this connection I wish to say that my services as Commonwealth's Attorney have been very pleasant. No doubt I have made some mistakes, but I am happy to know they were on the side of mercy rather than that of oppression. While endeavoring to vigorously prosecute those guilty of crime, I have tried to be just and fair to all. The period of my life in which I have held public office will always be a pleasant memory, and I shall ever be grateful to the people of Letcher and Pike counties for the many kindnesses shown me.

I have long realized that my best interests and those of my family would be best promoted by my retiring from political life and again taking up the active practice of my profession. In giving up the duties of public office I feel as if a great burden had been lifted from my shoulders, and I go out of office with a kindly feeling for all and malice for none.

Wishing the people of my district every happiness and prosperity, I am,

R. MONROE FIELDS.

'Tis Letcher's Time

(Contributed)

Two years ago without a protest and gladly the Republicans of Letcher county rallied around Perry county's choice and sent him to Frankfort as its law-maker and representative. Now, Letcher county, in the same spirit with which she was approached two years ago, takes off her hat to Perry and asks the good people of that county to come across and help to nominate and elect a Letcher county man. Two men reared on the farm, men of sweat and toil, and two others with whose life and history we are not familiar are asking for the nomination in the county. Another, equally as worthy no doubt, from Perry seeks the same favor. Owing to its large voting population Perry county can lord it over Letcher in this matter, but we believe her people have a better heart. As Republicans, let's do right, let's tote fair.

The editor's biggest half has been very sick for a few days.

See the new ad of the new First National Bank of Fleming. The big coal fields are still coming.

According to the world's newspapers war clouds are constantly appearing above the horizon. We have missed many opportunities and some of these days a world's catastrophe will arise that will make the latest awful siege look like thirty cents.

Rev. Jonathan C. Day, one of the world's greatest men and a native Letcher county boy, is billed to arrive here on or about the 20th. He will visit in the county some days.

Up to the last minute for filing for nominations everybody expected something to happen, sensational or otherwise, but, as is usually the case, the expected never happened, and the hour closed with all running in full gear.

We are paid to say that John C. Brown of Dry Fork, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Peace of Magisterial district No. 1 Letcher county. He solicits the support of all.

Eric Rierson came in from Bluefield and will be here ten or fifteen days assisting in the post-office.

We have yet to see an apple that grew on a tree around here. Undoubtedly the crop is the complete failure ever known in this section.

"Checkers," a moving picture play adapted from the famous novel of that name, was shown at the Pearl Theatre this week. Also the International News, or events of the world in picture form were exhibited. Manager Hart is striving hard to please the public.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW

Business More Repressed Than Usual at This Season.

Only Small Stimulation in Movement of Summer Goods—Decrease in Manufacturing.

Chicago, July 17.—What is normal in the beginning of the quietest period of the year finds business more repressed than usual, with no prospect of an early breaking of the existing dullness. Such a situation occasions no surprise in a year marked by inevitable and far-reaching readjustments and uncertainties. Aside from some stimulation of the retail movement of summer goods, due to high temperatures, general conditions do not essentially differ from those of a week ago. If any change has occurred in basic industries, it has been in the direction of further decrease in manufacturing, with some additional easing of prices. Questions of wages remain a cause for contention in different lines, yet some protracted strikes have been adjusted and the labor outlook is less unsettled. Relief from the exceptional dullness in iron and steel markets gives no sign of appearing. As illustrating the current restriction of output one concern has only 14 blast furnaces active out of a total of 33.

Resale offerings of pig iron have depressed prices further in some districts and published quotations this week disclose additional recessions ranging from 50 cents to $1 a ton. The quietness usual at this period in dry goods channels has been accentuated by the recent unsettlement in financial markets and the further decline in raw cotton prices. Opening of cottons for an advance season may be postponed until August, and hesitation in the movement of silks has prompted expectations of lower prices to follow. The wool goods industry is more fully occupied than any other line.

After several weeks of improving conditions, which it was hoped would continue, there has been a return to the former dullness in hide and leather markets.

Commercial failures this week, 276; last week, 329; preceding week, 300; corresponding week last year, 113.

For Torpid Liver

"Black-Draught is, in my opinion, the best liver medicine on the market," states Mrs. R. H. White, of Keokuk, Iowa. She continues: "I had a pain in my chest after eating—light, uncomfortable feeling—and this was very disagreeable and brought on headache. I was constipated and knew it was indigestion and inactive liver. I began the use of Black-Draught, night and morning, and it sure is splendid and certainly gives relief."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

For over seventy years this purely vegetable preparation has been found beneficial by thousands of persons suffering from effects of a torpid, or slow-acting liver. Indigestion, biliousness, colic, coated tongue, dizziness, constipation, bitter taste, sleeplessness, lack of energy, pain in back, puffiness under the eyes—any or all of these symptoms often indicate that there is something the matter with your liver. You can't be too careful about the medicine you take. Be sure that the name, "Thedford's Black-Draught," is on the package. At all druggists.

STILLMAN ON STAND

Cross-Examination of Banker Resumed in Divorce Suit.

New York Financier Avoids Answering Questions Fired at Him by Wife's Attorneys.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 1.—Cross-examination of James A. Stillman, wealthy New York banker, was resumed in the divorce suit he instituted against the former FBI Potter. The plaintiff abandoned his attempts to evade photographs, which proved unsuccessful Wednesday, although he entered and departed the building through a cellar trapdoor.

Mrs. Stillman was already inside, conferring with her attorneys. It was reported that they would switch their quizzing of Mr. Stillman to his relations with his wife, as he refused Wednesday to answer any questions regarding his conduct with other women on the ground that it might tend to incriminate him. It was said that John E. Mack, guardian ad litem for Guy Stillman, would question the banker along lines bearing on the paternity of the child, whom Mr. Stillman branded as illegitimate.

Stillman gave only one reply to a multitude of questions fired at him by his wife's attorneys at his first appearance, and that reply was:

"I refuse to answer, on the ground that it might tend to incriminate me."

With these words often repeated during his three hours in the witness chair, Mr. Stillman was reported to have evaded inquiries as to whether he knew Mrs. Florence H. Leeds, former Broadway chorus girl; whether he was the father of her infant son, Jay Ward Leeds; whether he supported Mrs. Leeds in luxury, whether he had formed a trust fund for her child, whether they had been together on his yacht Modesty and at a "love nest" owned by him near Miami, Fla.

In similar manner he declined, it was said, to say whether he knew "Helen" or "Clara," two other women named by Mrs. Stillman in her amended answer to his divorce complaint. With the same words Mr. Stillman even refused to identify his own photograph and a signature, "James A. Stillman," written upon an application for a license to operate an automobile. He would not say who christened the Modesty, or whether he had aboard it a gold cocktail shaker and two gold glasses, which the defense charged were presents from Mrs. Leeds.

Another question which he refused to answer on the ground that it might tend to incriminate him, was: "While your family was at Atlantic City at one hotel did you maintain an apartment with another woman at another hotel in Atlantic City?"

Physiological Action of Tanlac Explained

World's Leading Authorities Show Just What Tanlac Really is and Explain Effect of Each of Ten Ingredients on the Human System. Power of Medicine Conclusively Proven.

A day never passes but what thousands of persons ask the questions: What is Tanlac? Why its phenomenal success? Why do we hear so much about it? and Why has this preparation so far outstripped all other medicines of its kind?

The answer to these questions is easy and can be explained in just one word—merit. Tanlac is scientifically compounded and represents years of work, study, experimentation and research by some of the foremost chemists and pharmacologists of America.

The Tanlac formula is purely ethical and complies with all National and State pure food laws. It is purely vegetable and is made from the most beneficial roots, herbs and barks known to Materia Medica. The Tanlac Laboratories are among the largest and most modernly equipped in this country.

Ten Ingredients in Tanlac

Altogether, there are ten ingredients in Tanlac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value.

In referring to one of the more important ingredients of Tanlac the Encyclopedia Britannica says:

"It has been the source of the most valuable tonic medicines that have ever been discovered."

In referring to other of the general tonic drugs contained in Tanlac, the 13th Edition of Potter's Therapeutics, a standard medical text book, states that "they impart general tone and strength to the entire system including all organs and tissues."

The same well known authority in describing the physiological action of still another of the ingredients of Tanlac which is of value in treating what is commonly known as a "run-down condition," uses the following expression:

"It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

There are certain other elements in

Tanlac which, because of their influence upon the appetite, digestion, assimilation and elimination improve the nutrition and vital activity of all the tissues and organs of the body and produce that state of general tonic which is called health.

The United States Dispensary makes the following comment regarding another ingredient:

"It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required."

There are certain other ingredients described in the Dispensary, and in other standard medical text books, as having a beneficial action upon the organs of secretion, whose proper functioning results in a purification of the blood streams passing through them. In this manner objectionable and poisonous ingredients of the blood are removed and the entire system invigorated and vitalized.

Tonic and Body Builder

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time, however, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and blood builder, for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and the thorough elimination of the waste products must, therefore, have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

Notice Candidates

On July 12, 1921, all candidates who have filed for the primary election must meet in my office and draw for positions on the ballot. On July 22 all candidates must file expense accounts up to and including that date.

C. H. Back COUNTY CLERK

Notwithstanding the fact that there is not much news matter in this week's Eagle, yet more type has been set for it than usual. Look over the new matter and see.

Eld. W. R. Boggs was over and tells us he has bought a farm in Rockcastle county and will move to it soon. We really regret to give up such a valuable citizen.

The Whitesburg Laundry is already crowded with more work than it can do. The plant will be enlarged to meet the demand.

On the first page is shown the face and features of Hon. J. C. Day who aspires to be the Republican nominee for Representative from our district. Mr. Day comes from two of the oldest families in Letcher county. Should the nomination fall to his lot, he will be elected and will make a good Representative.

In the Eagle this week is the announcement of John C. Brown of Dry Fork, as a candidate for Justice. Mr. Brown is a well known citizen and is held in high regard by all. He has served as postmaster for over 25 years and has been a merchant and farmer. We take it, in case he is favored with the office he will make a good one. All the voters are invited to think about it and choose the best qualified man among all the candidates to serve them.

HARDING SIGNS ARMY MEASURE

In Message to Congress He Regrets Cutting Force to 150,000.

NEW TARIFF BILL IN HOUSE

Expected to Raise $700,000,000 Shows Increases in Great Bulk of Imports Already Taxed and Decreases in Some Cases.

Washington, July 1.—President Harding signed the army bill at the White House and at the same time transmitted a message to congress expressing the administration's regret and embarrassment at cutting down the size of the army from 220,000 to 150,000 men.

New Tariff Bill in House.

Congress had its first opportunity to examine the administration's permanent tariff bill, six months in the making.

After last-minute revision by republican members of the house ways and means committee, the measure was introduced in the house by Chairman Fordney, who remarked that he hoped when it finally was enacted into law it would be "acceptable to the people."

House republicans will caucus on the bill with a view to determining whether or not it should be put through as drafted. The bill contains nearly a hundred thousand words, and some leaders said it might not be possible to thrash out all differences at one session.

The measure must be considered by the full ways and means committee before it can be formally reported to the house.

Increases Over Underwood Bill.

Compared with the Underwood bill, which superseded the Payne-Aldrich law in 1913 under the Wilson administration, the new bill shows increases in the great bulk of imports already taxed, and decreases in some cases. The free list contains 189 paragraphs, under which many kindred articles were grouped in many cases, but many imports, particularly of agricultural products, are removed from the free list as contained in the Underwood law.

Some articles which were on the free list of the Payne-Aldrich bill, notably crude and fuel oils, are placed on the dutiable list, the duty on crude being 35 cents a barrel of forty-two gallons and on fuel oil 25 cents a barrel. Such oils were continued on the free list by the Underwood law.

The tariff on paper clips has been reduced 10 per cent. The old Payne-Aldrich bill had paper clips on the free list. The bill was introduced without accompanying explanatory statements, therefore customary, and it contained no index. Members of the ways and means committee made no official estimate of the amount of revenue it is expected to return but some of them in unofficial estimates placed the total as high as $700,000,000 as against the $300,000,000 produced by the Payne-Aldrich law in the normal prewar years.

Expect Action by July 20.

Chairman Fordney has announced that he expects the house to pass the bill by July 20, but Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee has estimated that two months will be required for consideration by his committee. A democratic fight in the senate is expected, with extended debate as result, and leaders ventured no prediction as to the probable date on which the measure would be sent to the white house.

AIR BOMBERS' AIM IS POOR

Aviators Attacking Radio-Controlled Battleship Scored Less Than Three Per Cent of Hits.

Washington, July 1.—Aerial bombers attacking the radio-controlled battleship Iowa off the Maryland coast Wednesday scored less than three per cent of hits, according to an official report to the navy department from Vice Admiral Hillary P. Jones, in charge of the tests. Admiral Jones said 70 bombs were dropped and that two struck the Iowa. Aviation experts of the army and navy were gratified at the success of the scouts in locating the Iowa as quickly as they did, and were not discouraged by the low percentage of hits.

HARDING WAIVES SPECIAL CAR

President Will Travel as Ordinary Passenger on Fourth of July Trip.

Washington, July 1.—When President Harding and his party leave here Friday for a Fourth of July vacation at the home of Senator Frelinghuysen at Maritan, N. J., they will travel in a chair car of a regular passenger train. It will be the first time in several administrations that a president has left Washington as an ordinary passenger.

Navy Honors Late C. J. Bonaparte.

Washington, July 1.—Flags of all navy vessels and shore stations were flown at half-mast as a mark of respect to Charles J. Bonaparte, former secretary of the navy and former attorney general, who died Tuesday.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarettey aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.

Announcement

Of J. C. Day, of Whitesburg, for Representative of 97th Legislative District.

To the Voters of Perry and Letcher Counties:

I am a candidate for representative from our district, composed of the counties of Perry and Letcher, subject to the action of the Republican party as expressed at the primary to be held on August 6, 1921.

I am a native Letcher county mountaineer; a son of Preston Day and Nannie Hogg Day both of whom died when I was a small boy, my father having been killed when I was but two years of age. I was principally reared by my grandfather, James Hogg Sr. who is also dead.

I married twenty years ago to the daughter of R. O. Brashears and Jane Combs Brashears and have six children, one of whom, my eldest son just past 16 years is a volunteer now serving in the U.S. Army.

I have been extensively engaged in the farming business and mercantile business and am the owner of a large farm in Letcher county, upon which is situated a mining town mining the coal from my land as well as other lands adjoining it.

I have served the people of my county two terms as Justice of the Peace of Whitesburg No. 1 District and for the past two years have been chairman of the board of trustees of Whitesburg Graded School.

I am well acquainted with the needs of our mountain country and realize that the three principal things that our section of the State needs are better roads and bridges, better schools and churches and a stricter enforcement of our laws, that law and order may prevail, and that we may enjoy peace and prosperity.

Our principal wealth is in our mining industries and I shall favor such laws as will protect them against any unjust burdens of taxation, or other injurious legislation.

I have always been a laboring man and am acquainted with the needs of laboring men and shall favor such legislation as will be fair to both labor and capital, realizing that neither can prosper without the co-operation of the other.

My representative came from Hazard, Perry county, two years ago and we of Letcher county supported him and gave him no opposition and now the people of Letcher feel that it would be fair, just and right that the Representative for this term should be a citizen of Letcher. That kind of an agreement was made by leaders of both counties and we have kept the faith, and I hope that the people of both counties will rally to my support and help to put a native Kentucky Mountaineer in the next Legislature.

I have always been a loyal Republican and as this is a large Republican district let's make no mistake about the nomination of a loyal Republican on our ticket. Thanking you for any support you may give me and assuring you that if I am nominated and elected I shall serve the people of the whole district conscientiously and soberly.

Very truly yours,
J. C. DAY

HARDING OPENS BUDGET PARLEY

Promises New Era of Economy in Expenditures of Public Funds.

IS NATION'S GREATEST NEED

President Plays Extravagance, Declaring That Public Debt Is Menace—Dawes and Other High Government Officials Present.

Washington, July 1.—President Harding pledged his administration to a new era of economy and efficiency in opening a first budget conference of cabinet and other high officers of the government. He told his auditors there was no menace in the world today like the tendency of extravagant public expenditures.

President Harding was accompanied to the budget conference by Attorney General Daugherty and George B. Christian, the executive's secretary. Vice President Coolidge arrived a few minutes before the President.

Dawes Tells Policy

The President presided. Charles G. Dawes, the new budget director, outlined the policies of his office and said it was the purpose of the new government agency "to give the President an opportunity to become, in fact as he has been in theory, the head of the business administration of the United States government."

Mr. Harding addressed the several hundred bureau heads as "fellow workers," and outlined in a short address the purposes he hoped would be attained through the budget system.

"I do not know," said the President, "that there has ever been a meeting like this in the history of the government of the United States. I am very glad to come before you and stand sponsor for this meeting. The present administration of the federal government is committed to a period of economy and efficiency in government. This statement is not made with any thought of criticizing what has gone before. It is made in a new realization of the necessity of driving at the loose, unscientific expenditures of government."

"There is not a menace in the world today like the growing public indebtedness and mounting public expenditures. There has seemingly grown up a conviction that public treasuries are inexhaustible. We want to reverse this. Congress has provided for a bureau of the budget, and it has been my privilege and my responsibility to choose the director of the budget."

"After a conference with him it was decided that the way to begin was to look to those who are in fact responsible for government economy and efficiency. Sometimes we overlook those who really do things in the world. In the public service there are tens of thousands who are giving their best of whom the public never knows."

Depends on Basic Principles

"And so today with the heads of the various departments of the government I have asked you to assemble to present to me the new director of the budget and to say to me that every resolution, every commitment of the administration is to join with you and to have you join with us in inaugurating a new era of efficiency and economy in the United States."

"The permanent success of the budget system in the United States," Mr. Dawes said, "depends upon certain basic principles which at its inception must be so firmly established both as to concept and rules of action that they never hereafter will be questioned."

"The budget bureau must be impartial, impersonal and nonpolitical. The director of the budget in the matter of governmental business under the laws save in the administration of his own bureau. He simply is an adviser of the President and of congress in the matter of correcting business administration."

"The director of the budget, in gathering information for the use of the President, acts for the President and his calls upon chiefs and bureaus and other administrative officers for purposes of consultation or information takes precedence over the cabinet head of the department, or any head of an independent organization."

"The budget representative in each department being appointed by the cabinet head will present to the director the views of the cabinet head, upon the wisdom of conclusions drawn by the director of the budget, for the use of the chief executive and congress, but as in the case of bureau chiefs and other officers, the call of the director of the budget for their presence and advice takes precedence over the cabinet head."

DEMPESEY WANTS K. O. FINALE

Champion Desires Contest With Carpenter to End With Knockout.

BOTH FIGHTERS CONFIDENT

Descamps Says: "After Saturday I Will Be Manager of World's Heavyweight Champion—Many Notables to Attend the Bout."

Atlantic City, N. J., July 1.—With ten long weeks of training behind him, Jack Dempsey is through with hard work until he defends his championship Saturday afternoon.

The champion completed his training, but he will loosen up his muscles on the punching bags this afternoon before he leaves for Jersey City. He expects to take off two pounds tonight, so as to bring his weight down to 180 pounds, the figure he plans to scale at the ring time. He weighed 192 pounds before his final workout.

The hour of Dempsey's departure is a guarded secret in the champion's camp. Manager Jack Kearns said Jack and his party will leave here, but he may decide to split him away at night and have the camp attaches follow by a later train. Dempsey will be kept in seclusion at a private residence in Jersey City until time to go to the arena.

Dempsey Wants K. O. Finale

Jack wants his contest with Carpenter to end decisively, with either himself or Carpenter stretched on the floor of the ring. If possible, before the twelfth round has been fought out at Boyle's 30 acres.

The champion so declared himself when he said he did not want a tussle thrown in as an acknowledgment of defeat. A championship contest, he asserted, should be allowed to go to a knockout without regard to the battered or helpless condition of either contestant. Dempsey also is opposed to having the contest stopped by the referee.

"The best way to stop a fight to suit everybody is to knock the other man stiff," Dempsey said. "Then there is no chance for a comeback. I don't want Carpenter's men to throw in a towel. I know when it comes my turn to take it they are not going to throw in any towel for me. I will keep on fighting until I am counted out."

"Nobody is licked until he is counted out. If a fighter gets chicken-hearted and doesn't put over the winning punch when his opponent is dazed and wobbling he might get knocked out himself by a wild, desperate swing. Such things have happened."

Carpenter's Camp Confident

Manliusset, N. Y., July 1.—All members of Georges Carpenter's camp are confident that the blond Frenchman will be victorious in his battle with Dempsey. Their various opinions follow:

Manager Descamps.—Ah, my Georges never fooled me yet. After Saturday I shall be manager of the world's heavyweight champion.

Trainer Gus Wilson.—George, as a light heavyweight, came into contact with some of the world's cleverest hitting ringmen. He knows too much for Dempsey.

Many Notables to Attend

New York, July 1.—When Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpenter face each other for the world's heavyweight boxing championship in Jersey City Saturday afternoon, there will be present a greater assembly of national and international dignitaries than ever before attended a pugilistic contest in the history of the sport. A special train bringing 1,000 enthusiasts from the ranks of Chicago business men will reach here today.

France, England, Canada, Australia, Africa, and even China and Japan have contributed their quotas to the crowd of light fans already here. Many women are among the early arrivals and the official list of reservations indicated that not less than 5,000 representatives of the fair sex, many of them socially prominent in New York and other sections of the country, will cheer the encounter.

At least one member of President Harding's cabinet, Attorney General Daugherty, will be at the ringside. Innumerable diplomats and political leaders whose names command respect throughout the United States and foreign countries, have made their reservations.

Prominent Men to Attend

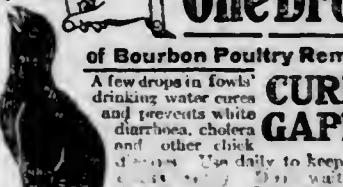

Among the well-known business men and financiers who will attend are J. P. Morgan, Henry Ford, Harry Payne Whitney, S. W. Barnhart, Harry F. Guggenheim, Percy Rockefeller, Vincent Astor, Russell G. Holt and others of equal prominence.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., assistant secretary of the navy, and Mrs. Roosevelt; Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Governor Edwards of New Jersey and Miss Anne Morgan will be in boxes.

Former Pugilists at Ringside

Hundreds of celebrities in the musical, theatrical and moving picture worlds already have engaged their seats.

James J. Jeffries, with his wife and daughter will be at the ringside, as will virtually all the erstwhile and present celebrities of pugilism, many of whom will be presented from the ring before the contest.
